Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Monday 14 Jun 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mainly dry and bright. Much cooler in east.

Today:
Mostly dry with brighter spells. Always cloudier across the Northwest Highlands and Islands where occasional generally light showers are brought on fresh to strong westerly winds. Feeling much cooler in east where temperatures will be well down from Sunday's highs.

Tonight:
Dry and clear night for vast majority, with showers restricted to only a few light outbreaks across the far north and northwest. Winds westerly, initially strong across the Northern Isles.

Tuesday:
Fine, dry and sunny day for most. Area of occasionally heavy rain pushing across the Highlands and Western Isles late afternoon, before weakening as it crosses through the country overnight.

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Mainly dry through the outlook period with occasional bright and sunny spells. However some chance of rain affecting the far east for a time early Wednesday and early Thursday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.